RAYMOND LANDRY

Director + David

What a ride! Welcome back to live theatre! Thank you for all you had to do to be here. Thank you for coming back...

With the life-changing events of this and last year, Ray is very happy to be back on stage in his 22nd production in ten years, and to be directing for the third time, as well. It was just before the pandemic closures were announced last March that you might have seen Ray dancing and singing on stage with the cast and crew of All Shook Up!

"What a perfect experience it has been to join my wife, Helen, on stage, in rehearsals, and in every moment of navigating through this crazy time. To be part of her process and sharing in the at times overwhelming feeling of taking on such a challenging script." Ray is overjoyed to present this funny, touching, and thought-provoking play as "egghead" David Killbride, in Norm Foster's On a First Name Basis.

With almost three decades on- and off-stage, Helen is thrilled to finally share this production with her partner, Ray. They spent summer and fall learning lines and discussing these complex and comedic characters, a nice distraction from the last year's uncertainty. Helen would like to thank SPG's Board of Directors, the production committee for choosing this show, the directors and mentors she learned from over the years, but especially her love, Ray, for helping bring out the 'Lucy' in her.

NANCY BELAND

Stage Manager

Nancy was happy to step in and act as a third pair of eyes and ears, as both Ray and Helen are seasoned theatre veterans. This certainly made her job easier, and she has had a great time (as short as it was) working with these consummate professionals.

She would also like to thank Karen Schute for being the amazing person that she is. Nancy can always count on Karen to step up and pitch in whenever she is asked. Karen is appreciated more than she knows.

Nancy sends a huge thank you to our front of house volunteers, and to the audience. We couldn't do this without you.

Welcome back to the theatre; we have missed you!
