Tim Slam is a Sudbury-based rhythm guitarist with 30 years of guitar playing experience. Originally from London, Ontario, Tim brings an energetic and unique blend of rock, alternative, hip hop, and mashups to his live shows. Influenced by artists such as Dave Matthews, John Mayer, and the Rolling Stones, Tim's performances are known for their dynamic and diverse style. He is also one of the hosts of Soundwave Open Mic, a popular event held every Monday night at The Daventry.

FALCON is a live music entertainer based in Sudbury, ON, who delivers captivating performances featuring reimagined versions of well-known classics and original hits, all in his signature 'one-man-band' style. With his guitar, he skillfully creates Live Loops, allowing him to seamlessly explore a diverse array of genres including folk, rock, pop, reggae, jazz, blues, and experimental music.

Marc Serré + Dayv Poulin

To accurately describe an evening of music with Marc, would be to envision a walk in time with your favorite story tellers. Whether it's a heart-warming walk through classic country with the likes of Roger Miller and Johnny Cash, the stormy seaside along Gordon Lightfoot, or rooting into the softer side of the Seattle music scene, Marc's performance will graciously take you to a place in time you didn't know you had been missing.

Dayv Poulin has been playing music professionally for over 30 years. From bars, to weddings, to big stages across the country, Dayv has been entertaining crowds of all ages with his impressive vocal skills and huge variety of song selections. Well known for his role as frontman and singer of the group Toe Jam Tequila, he is also one half of successful folk duo cAbiners, founding member of the popular folk trio Les Billinguish Boys and has also been a key member of french bands Konflikt Dramatik and Les Chaizes Muzikales earlier in his career. His French project Le Paysagiste has been extremely successful, with awards and concerts across the country. This past year, Dayv Poulin released an album under his real name and released three singles to radio, all of which received numerous number 1 spots across Canada.

Allison MacDonald

The best way to describe Allison's catalog is that of a yard sale mix tape. She'll musically take you on an unprecedented road trip spanning several decades, with no telling where the next stop may be.

Amassing a love for music was easy to come by in her family. Early exposure to musical gatherings lead to the creation of many family basement bands with cousins, which prepared her for the last 15 years of joining the stage alongside several local musicians.

A self described dive bar jukebox, Allison is sure to tap into your musical taste.

Meet Leo and Viv, the dynamic musical duo with a story as harmonious as their melodies. Viv, the piano virtuoso who can turn a classical piece into a toe-tapping jam. Leo, the guy who learned guitar "by ear by ear" because, well, who needs two anyway? Their journey started in '91 when Leo was the band's light man - talk about shedding light on the stage! Reconnecting years later, they joined forces to perform "The Prayer" on a Christmas telethon. Turns out, their friendship is as timeless as Leo's questionable guitar tuning skills.

Scott Mitchell

SUDBURY PERFORMANCE GROUP PRESENTS

Scott Mitchell

Scott Mitchell studied Jazz guitar at Laurentian University and has been in theatre and performing live throughout Ontario for over 20 years. In the fall of 2000 Scott Mitchell, along with several other local musicians formed cover/original act "My Band". In 2003, after performing for a number of years, they released their debut disc The Blaney Era. The first ECD to be released from a Northern Ontario Artist, The Blaney Era, enjoyed radio play in Northern Ontario and some success abroad.

With this success, the original material became their focus, and this success called for an increased commitment needed to maintain it. Looking to separate themselves from the cover shows they once performed, the band changed their name to Another Story in reference to the new direction of their careers. Another Story's music has been described as "...where Matchbox 20 meets 3 doors down." Since their beginning Another Story has done over 1000 live shows, appeared on 4 soundtracks, 4 compilation CD's, done over 100 benefit concerts, released 2 full length albums and shared stages with Ashley MacIsaac, Barney Bentall, Default, The Mudmen, The 70's all star band and April Wine to name a few.

While the release of their second full length CD, Volume 1, in October 2008 did not achieve much local success it was very successful in Europe, Asia and Australia. The band was offered a deal to tour the US but declined and decided to retire from the road.

Scott Mitchell can still be found playing local establishments in Sudbury as a solo artist occasionally getting the band back together for special events.

Rusted Spoons

Meet John: With a musical journey that began at 17, John Serre seamlessly weaved through genres like garage, punk, metal, and folk, showcasing fluency in various instruments. His projects led him to tour France, performing at renowned venues like Paris' La Batofar with Born and engaging over 300 people at a city function in Elliot Lake with Kaiser North. Currently, He channels his diverse influences into Rusted Spoons, a bluesy, jazzy, funky, punk duo. Imagine the musical offspring of Amy Winehouse, Brandy, Wes Montgomery, Bo Diddley, Howling Wolf, and Cake - that's the sound created by Rusted Spoons.

Meet Elizabeth: My name is Elizabeth. I'm originally from Niagara Falls and have been living in Elliot Lake for 13 years, and Sudbury for a few years in between. I've been singing for as long as I can remember and it's always been a passion of mine. I started off singing karaoke until I was in my late 30's, when I began singing at open mics. Along with a great guitarist John who I met at a local open mic, we formed the duo Rusted Spoons. We play many genres of music with a focus on blues, funk, jazz and soul.

Twenty One

Twenty-One (21) are a 4-piece Sudburian band. Their style ranges from classic rock to today's dance. The band formed in 2016 from a collection of nerdy aristocrats who met at a bar and who all just couldn't get enough AC/DC, Journey, Dua Lipa and the Weekend. Their unique brand of entertainment fuses fun and danceable with non-choreographed displays and banter that will make you want to sing along. Now hailed as 'performed at the iconic back yard of that guy you know'.

"Such a fun band to watch, we danced all night till we burned holes through our stockings!" – Nunya Biznez

Chad turned a new chapter in his life in January 2023 when the last of his 3 children moved out and started their own Lil Family. He then turned to writing his own songs, to have his first song go #1 on Top10 Top20 & Top30 Charts in North Carolina. Chad has also been Nominated for 6 Categories at The International Singer Songwriters Association (ISSA) Awards This August 2024.

His Music is Available across all platforms. "Music Has Been There throughout My Highs and Lows and will continue to be who I am for the rest of my life" There is NO Happier Place... Then "Lost in a Song", says Chad. He looks forward to entertaining Sudbury & Area.

Carey Blackwell

I grew up in the small Northern town of Cochrane. The youngest of 5. Music was always a part of our everyday life. As a young child I became obsessed with the drums and then soon after, the guitar. Influenced by Christian music of Phil Keaggy, Keith Green, and many others. Then later on was influenced by bands like Rush, Yes, and other progressive music. Then eventually making a living playing the music my father loves, country. Music is my life. Always has been, always will be.

Renee Trappier

Born and raised in Sudbury, Renee enjoyed her youth growing up in the Valley where she enjoyed all the outdoors had to offer. Renee found her interest in music at the age of 10, when she began classical training with Jeff Wiseman and also attended the performing arts program at Sudbury Secondary School with Mr. Mac. She has been fortunate enough to have the opportunity to sing in a few movies as well as being involved in local theatre. "Without music life would be a mistake".

Thea May

Introducing Thea May, an extraordinary singer and songwriter hailing from Atikameksheng Anishnawbek in what is now known as Northern Ontario. With a deep-rooted love for pop and hip-hop, Thea has carved her own unique path in the music industry. Her forthcoming EP, titled CONSCIOUS, is set to release its first single on Indigenous Peoples Day 2023 (June 21st), marking a significant milestone in her artistic journey. Howling Turtle, the renowned record label founded by Toronto-based Mohawk-Caribbean musician Julian Taylor, recognized Thea's exceptional talent and partnered with her to unleash her creative potential. Distributed by Warner Music Canada, her music reaches a diverse audience eager to experience her dynamic fusion of genres.

Thea's musical prowess has already made waves in the industry. Her collaborations with Métis rapper Troy

Junker, including the chart-topping hits "Runaway" and "Note to Self," have earned her recognition on the Sirius XM Indigenous Music Countdown. The latter even soared to the coveted #1 spot. Additionally, Thea has collaborated with esteemed artists such as Willa, known for co-writing the Grammy-nominated "Slow Song" by The Knocks and Dragonette. She has also worked with David Ariza, a renowned producer and engineer associated with Tanya Tagaq, Myles Castello, and Charmaine. Notably, Thea has joined forces with Adrian X, a member of the Grammy-winning team behind Drake's acclaimed album "Take Care." Her recent collaborations with Illegal Audio (Lex and Marc Kocher) have further elevated her talent to new heights.

In December 2021, Thea experienced an immense personal loss with the passing of her boyfriend, Keenan MacLean-Hill. This tragic event became a catalyst for her artistic transformation. As she navigated the depths of grief, Thea found solace in her art and embarked on a musical exploration that led her back to her folk and rock roots. Drawing inspiration from legends such as Stevie Nicks, Janis Joplin, Taylor Swift, and Lucinda Williams, she embraced these influences to authentically express her emotions through her songs. Thea May's music now encompasses a profound depth and vulnerability, capturing the essence of her journey through grief and self-discovery.

With her forthcoming EP, Brought To You By Tragedy, Thea invites listeners to join her on a cathartic sonic experience, where the power of music becomes a transformative force. Her artistry resonates on a soulful level, touching hearts and inspiring others to find healing through the power of expression.

Tak Arikushi

Tak Arikushi is a masterful artist whose musical prowess is a unique blend of manouche jazz with a captivating Japanese twist. His innovative approach involves seamlessly fusing the red-hot swing rhythms inspired by the legendary Django Reinhardt with rhapsodic Japanese melodies, ranging from traditional melodies to contemporary compositions. In doing so, he embarks on a musical exploration at the crossroads where the rich tapestry of American jazz converges with the cultural nuances of Japan. This amalgamation results in a harmonious fusion that not only pays homage to the roots of manouche jazz but also reflects the intricate beauty of Japanese musical heritage.

Arikushi's accolades serve as a testament to his exceptional talent and recognition within the music industry. He has shared the stage with the manouche jazz giant Stephane Wrembel, a collaboration that further solidifies his standing in the genre. His musical journey extends to diverse platforms, including contributing to the soundtrack of the top-selling video game Cuphead: Delicious Last Course, showcasing the versatility and adaptability of his craft. Additionally, being the preferred band for Rush bassist Geddy Lee's family event underscores the widespread appeal of Arikushi's music beyond traditional boundaries.

Tak's performances are characterized by inventive arrangements that feature acoustic string-swing instrumentation, executed with virtuosity and an unmistakable passion. The result is a captivating sound that not only prompts listeners to tap their toes to the infectious rhythm but also invites contemplation, creating a musical experience that seamlessly balances energy and introspection. As a maestro at the intersection of cultures, Tak Arikushi crafts a musical narrative that transcends geographical and stylistic boundaries, creating an auditory tapestry that resonates with audiences on both sides of the Pacific and beyond.

We are a father and son acoustic duo, and we started "Busking" (which is the art of playing music on the streets for tips) We started playing before the public in 2021, when Parker was only 13 years old. The past 2 years Parker has grown into a performer, and has written a few songs of his own. We have been fortunate to be invited to play at several festivals including the Sudbury Market, Northern Lights Festival, Massey Fair, Burwash Festival, and at the Grace Hartman Amphitheatre for Poutine Fest. Parker has worked very closely with the Sudbury Music Academy and is becoming quite the proficient guitar player.

To become as versatile as possible, we work on learning songs for all age groups, genres, and styles such as rock, pop, blues, jazzy, country, and straight instrumental.

We hope you will invite us to entertain your guests/patrons at your next event, and we will work within your budget.

FALCON's ability to deliver reimagined versions of classics and original hits in a 'one-man-band' style, along with his Live Looping skills, adds a dynamic and versatile dimension to the performance.

NINA's early connection with music, starting from humming as a child to soloing in school choirs and being part of bands and musical theatre, showcases her passion and versatility as a vocalist. The combination of FALCON's instrumental prowess and NINA's vocal talent creates a promising synergy that spans various genres, from folk and rock to pop, reggae, jazz, blues, and experimental music.

The collaboration between FALCON and NINA promises to be a magical experience, blending the best of their individual worlds into a seamless and entertaining performance. Their journey from Sudbury, ON, to Toronto and back adds an interesting dimension to their musical story, and the audience can anticipate a show filled with creativity, energy, and a shared love for music.

Damara + Satine

Damara is a 17 year old self-taught musician, they are excited to play in the Northern Arts Festival. For years they played instruments, learning how to play guitar and ukulele. Damara has been playing for 5-6 years. Every day they work to learn more. They play a variety of songs, from the Beatles, to Billy Talent. Most songs they can look at the chords and play. They hope to inspire others to show their talents

Satine is a 16 year old aspiring performer who's just crazy about music!! She pulls her inspirations from all eras, but her favourite music hails from the 60s, her favourite band being The Beatles. With Damara, she will be singing and playing keyboard to some hits, and some deep-cuts, from a wide variety of artists. She hopes you enjoy the show, as this will be her first ever gig.

Patty Crozier Featuring Adam Fenton

Born with a guitar in her hands and raised in Northern AB, Patty has a serious love of cheese... cheesy music and the huge smiles that you get when you say the word, that is. For two decades, Patty has graced many stages in the Algonquin area including live performances on Hunters Bay Radio 88.7 FM and The Moose 100.5 FM as a solo artist. She released "Midnight Queen" in 2015, "Ladies Night" in 2021 and is currently working on her 3rd album. Even though her music gets quite humorous at times, there is a very serious side to Patty, as serious as a hysterectomy, her newest single to be released soon. Over the last 2 years, Patty has joined forces with Adam Fenton, a former front man for the stoner metal band "Ox Head" out of North Bay. The two are an oddly grouped pair, but the meshing of their talents sound incredible... so incredible, you may just want to say cheese while standing beside us after the show. We call our Duo "Turn Me Loose" we are an I'm not sure what genre we are band, but I guarantee you'll like it!

Previous fans have described Patty's sound as, and I quote... "that hot chick that drank all my beer at the rodeo" and new fans describe the "Turn me loose" sound as "a dash of frisky, mixed with a lil whiskey in a gently stirred tea cup on the ol' mans back porch"

You can Find both "Midnight Queen" and "Ladies Night" on Spotify and Apple Music.

Johnny Rock

For nearly 40 years now, Johnny has been able to see the world as a musician, and he absolutely loves it. He's had the pleasure of working with the band Terra Cain, with which he toured the USA and Canada for years, and opened for many bands, including Def Leppard, The Tea Party, Aldo Nova, Big Sugar, Big Wreck, 54-40, and many more. To this day, Terra Cain jams out a bond that will keep going.

Johnny plays acoustic solo gigs in local restaurants and at house parties, and has an outlaw country sound with a hint of rocking blues vocals.

Maija McCahery

Maija McCahery is a Sudbury born resident with a love for storytelling through her singing and multiple stage performances, with her local community theatre groups over the last almost 10 years. Maija and her family have most recently returned to Sudbury after living away for over 40 years. In her most recent role in Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer she re-discovered her interest in storytelling for children as she transformed herself into Sam, the Snow Lady. Her natural ability to engage and connect with the children was quite apparent during the 17 show performance supported by Sudbury Performance Group. She remembered fondly her first large role that drew her back to the theatre, in 2015, when she played the Wicked Witch in the musical The Wizard of Oz. The reaction from the children in that performance was quite different indeed. She is delighted to have another opportunity to perform for the children and parents alike, during the Northern Arts Festival, since the arts community has embraced her so warmly.
